

CONSENT LETTER

Mr. Bijo Mathew Jose,

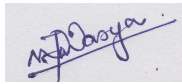

I, Aiswarya Sunil, hereby give my consent for you to proceed with the website development project for my business, Minnale.

The scope of work for this project includes the design and development of a new website for my business, as well as any necessary updates or modifications. I have provided you with a list of specific requirements and requests for the website, and I understand that these may be subject to change as the project progresses.

I understand that any intellectual property or confidential information related to this project will be handled in accordance with the terms of the agreement signed on [agreement date].

Thank you for your time and effort on this project. I look forward to seeing the completed website.

Sincerely,
Aiswarya Sunil
